

Analysis from movie

Movie: Titanic

1) Describe the 4 actors' personalities in the movie

Jack Dawson:

Kind,
adventurous, optimistic, and brave

He is an optimistic person, courageous in the face of hardship,
and often uses art and love as the driving force in life.

Rose DeWitt Bukater:

Intelligent, strong-willed,
independent, and compassionate.

From an upper-class woman constrained by society, she begins to find freedom and the courage to choose her own path.

Cal Hockley:

Arrogant,
controlling, and materialistic.

Represents the upper class who value property more than the feelings of others.

Molly Brown:

Generous,
confident, and courageous.

She helped people in a shipwreck and demonstrated courage and humanity.

2) Analysis 1 Actor (improved, developed, or promoted behavior)

Character: Rose DeWitt Bukater

At the beginning of the movie, Rose feels trapped by society's expectations and her engagement to Cal. Throughout the story, she develops courage and independence, learning to make her own choices based on love and self-respect. Her transformation promotes confidence, empathy, and the ability to stand up for herself.

Thank you!